MINUTES OF DISSENT

(I)

While I am in general agreement with the Commission's revised draft proposals, I am sorry, I find myself unable to appreciate the reasonableness of some of the proposals. I am, therefore, obliged to make alternative suggestions with respect of such of them.

No. 45 Mahua.—The size of this constituency has been made needlessly large. It is not well shaped either. I, therefore, suggest that Chaukidari Union Nos. 1, 2, 3 and 4 of Mahua P.S. (instead of Chaukidari Union Nos. 7, 10 and 13 of Mahua P.S.) should be added with Chaukidari Union Nos. 3, 4, 6, 7 and 8 of Lalganj P.S. to form Lalganj North Constituency with a population of 1,15,023 and Lalganj South will consist of the rest of Ch. Union of Lalganj P.S. with a population of 1,15,577 and thus Mahua will consist of Mahua P.S. excluding Ch. Union Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4 and 21. It will have a population of 2,49,860. It will be seen that from the point of view of population also there is more uniformity and greater balance in almost all the constituencies proposed by me. Moreover, the area and size of Mahua become more manageable and much smaller than the one proposed by the Commission.

181 Barhara.—The proposal suffers from lack of compactness and difficulty of communication. Besides, the eastern part of the proposed constituency has been split up into two by reason of one side of Arrah constituency passing right through it which will oblige a candidate to needlessly travel through another constituency to reach the other part of Barhara constituency. I, therefore, suggest that Ch. Union Nos. 5 and 6 of Arrah Mufassil P.S. included in 182 Arrah be added to Barhara to make it more compact and manageable. This will also at the same time obviate the need of passing through a portion of Arrah constituency. The resultant loss in population in Arrah constituency should be made up by taking out Ch. Union No. 14 of Arrah Mufassil from 183 Sandesh and added on to 182 Arrah. The Arrah constituency also in its turn becomes very compact in area and more easily manageable.

I am suggesting yet another alternative with regard to 181 Barhara and 182 Arrah. I feel that Arrah Mufassil P.S. which has the largest population of 1,62,618 should have been given one Assembly seat independently or at any rate, should have been given a predominant voice in another P.S. with which it has to be joined to form a constituency. As far as I think, the Commission had its principle in view while framing their proposals, but in this case, I am afraid, it has been overlooked. Arrah Mufassil P.S. has been sliced into pieces and joined with 181 Barhara, 182 Arrah and 183 Sandesh to make 3 Assembly seats. I appreciate the difficulty in the way of the Commission in carving out an independent constituency consisting only of the Unions in Arrah Mufassil P.S. but I do feel that the possibility of carving out a constituency with the dominating position for Arrah Mufassil should have been examined. This could only have been possible by taking out some portions either of Arrah or of Sandesh or of Barhara and some portions of Mufassil to form one constituency; but this is neither proper nor reasonable. Moreover, such a course would have affected the proposals in respect to other constituencies as well. Therefore, in the circumstances, the most workable proposal would be to split up Barhara. The Barhara P.S. excluding Ch. Union Nos. 1, 2, 11 and 12 and Ch. Union Nos. 5 to 7 and 15 to 20 of Arrah Mufassil should have been joined together to make a constituency to be known as Arrah Mufassil. Then Arrah 182 in that case will consist of Arrah town Ch. Union Nos. 8 to 12 of Arrah Mufassil and Ch. Union Nos. 1, 2, 11 and 12 of Barhara. This proposal is also an improvement upon the Commission's proposal in the sense that both Arrah and Arrah Mufassil constituencies gain in compactness, contiguity and manageability.

204 Aurangabad.—I am also unable to appreciate the reason for making this a plural constituency as the size and area of this constituency are unwieldy and unmanageable. Then this area is intersected by rivers at several points, making the problem of communication very difficult, particularly for want of roads. It will, therefore, make the constituency not easily accessible from one end to the other. Besides, in my opinion, without sacrificing the principle of concentration of scheduled caste population, we should take much greater care to make a plural constituency more compact and smaller in size in order to enable the Scheduled Caste representative to keep himself in closer contact with his constituents. I, therefore, suggest that Obra-Barun Police Stations and Nabinagar-Kutumba Police Stations should be lumped together into one plural constituency. It will have a population of 2,64,483 with the percentage of 18.60 of Scheduled Caste population. It will be seen that this gives a higher percentage of concentration of scheduled caste population than in the proposed Aurangabad constituency as Kutumba has 21.52 per cent. and Barun 22.18 per cent. concentration of scheduled caste population. Moreover, the area and size are much smaller and there is greater facility for transport and communication both by road and by rail. Aurangabad, in that case, with a population of 1,12,779 should be left alone to form one constituency. My proposal, therefore, is a distinct improvement upon Commission's proposal and, at the same time, causes least disturbance to the general scheme of delimitation proposed by the Commission.

With respect to the Parliamentary constituencies in North Bihar i.e. Saran, Champaran, Muzaffarpur and Darbhanga, I confess I had not made any comments before the Commission during their meetings with us, but I crave their indulgence to make a few observations with respect to the General scheme proposed by the Commission.

In my opinion the existing pattern of delimitations which worked smoothly during the last elections should have been followed with the minimum of alteration, if at all necessitated by variation in population. Parliamentary constituencies are very large in area and representatives take longer time to acquire personal knowledge of the problem involved as also to establish closer contact. Besides, the scheme as proposed has placed Muzaffarpur at a disadvantage. I am unable to appreciate the reason for having included 3 Assembly seats namely 52 Shakra and 54 and 55 Katra South and North in two inter-district Parliamentary seats with predominance for the district of Darbhanga. It will be noticed that 52 Shakra does not consist of the whole of Shakra P.S., but a few Chaukidari Unions have been, excluded from this Assembly seat which, in effect, means that the Police Station has been split up and included in two Parliamentary seats. If these 3 Assembly seats had to be included in inter-district Parliamentary seats, all of these should have been lumped together and placed in one Parliamentary seat which would have been fair both to Muzaffarpur and Darbhanga.

Chapra district has 26 assembly seats and Motihari has 20 whereas Muzaffarpur has 29 such seats. That in shortest means that Chapra has 2 extra after providing 4 Parliamentary constituencies and Motihari too has 2 extra after providing 3 parliamentary seats.

At present 2 extra seats from Chapra have been joined with Hajipur at southern end and 2 extra seats of Motihari with Sitamarhi sub-division in northern end of Muzaffarpur district. If Chapra is joined with Motihari then it will have 4 extra seats which being joined with Muzaffarpur will give Motihari 4 parliamentary seats which has only 3 at present. It may be noted that Saran and Champaran are at present linked together in a parliamentary constituency according to delimitation order of 1951. According to this suggestion the two Assembly seats at Muzaffarpur to be joined with Champaran will consist of Majorganj, Bairgania and Sheohar which according to Harijan population have to be a plural constituency as rightly linked under original draft proposals of Delimitation Commission.

Now (1) P. S. Sonbersa, Bela, Bursand, Pupri and Sitamarhi will constitute one parliamentary seat.

(2) Another parliamentary seat will consist of PSS. Belsand, Runisaidpur, Katra, Minapur and Muzaffarpur.

(3) Third parliamentary seats will consist of P. S. Sahebganj, Baruraj, Paru, Kanti, Lalganj and Union Nos. 7, 8 and 11 of Mahua P. S.

(4) Fourth plural member parliamentary seat will consist of P. S. Kurhani, Muzaffarpur Mufassil (excluding Chowkidari Union Nos. 1, 3, 4 and 5) Shakrai, Pateypur, Mahnar, Mahua, Hajipur and Raghapur of Muzaffarpur district and P. S. Mohiuddinagar, Tajpur and Warrisnagar west of Darbhanga district.

Note regarding Constituencies proposals being submitted with regard to Parliamentary constituencies.

Parliamentary Constituency

7. Hajipur A minor change is suggested in Lalganj police station in Muzaffarpur district where it is suggested to include the Lalganj Municipality instead of Chowkidari Union No. 9 of the Lalganj p. s. in Hajipur sub-division for the sake of compactness and contiguity of state constituency.
8. Muzaffarpur West. This is practically a new proposal for a single seat constituency by putting together areas where incidence of schedule cast population is comparatively lower.
9. Sitamarhi West This is a small alternative suggestion for including Patahi police station instead of Ghorasahan p. s. in Motihari Sadar sub-division in the district of Champaran for the sake of contiguity, compactness and convenience.
13. Darbhanga-cum-Muzaffarpur. This is a new proposal for a double member constituency and is bound to be definitely an improvement over the draft proposal in as much as 4 double member constituencies of the Assembly have been included in this instead of only 3 such under draft proposal. Then again, care has been taken to put together such contiguous areas in this constituency where the incidence of the population of schedule cast is comparatively higher.
12. Madhubani
15. Rosera
16. Phulparas } Very small changes have been proposed in the draft proposals for ensuring the better compactness and convenience.

Note of dissent by way of alternative proposals in the Parliamentary constituencies as drafted by the Delimitation Commission.

As a matter of fact the first draft of the Delimitation Commission gave out more compact and contiguous constituency than the second one. The changes suggested above in constituency Nos. 54 and 55 in the second draft cannot be treated as an improvement over that keeping in view the principle laid down by the Commission earlier.

It would certainly be unwise to take out Beat No. 8 from Baruraj P.S. which has a population of 1,07,000 and odd for meeting the deficit of P.S. Minapur. Katra P.S. has surplus population and it can very well meet the deficit of Minapur P.S. by parting Beat No. 4.

Since the incidence of Harijan population in Sakra-cum-Pateypur is higher than Paroo-cum-Baruraj. It is therefore suggested that Shakra and Pateypur should be grouped together to make out a plural state constituency. Secondly Baruraj having a population of 1,07,000 qualifies itself for a single member constituency.

If the above suggestion of mine is not acceptable regarding the Harijan seat, I give below my alternative suggestion without any substantial changes.

Change of Beat No. 9 from Lalganj South to Lalganj North and the Lalganj Municipality from North to South is suggested for the sake of carving out a more compact and contiguous constituency as will be evident from the perusal of the map itself.

The humble suggestions on behalf of Sri Karpoori Thakur, M.L.A., Bihar most respectfully sheweth :—

(a) The population of Pateypur P.S. is 97186 and the population of Beat No. 3 and 6 of Mahua P.S. is 26556. By adding these two Beats in Pateypur P.S. the population comes to 123742. It would not be out of place to mention here that by adding Beat No. 21 in Pateypur P.S. the total population comes to 115769 and not 117082 as prepared by the Delimitation Commission. The Beat No. 21 of Mahua P.S. should not be added to Pateypur P.S. as the people will feel great difficulties for lack of communications etc. There is a Baraila Chawar (Jhil) covering an area of 18000 acres. In other words Beat No. 21 lies towards the South of Baraila Jhil and Pateypur P.S. lies on the adjacent north of Baraila Jhil. The Beat No. 3 and 6 of Mahua P.S. is nearer to Pateypur P.S. and so it is suggested that these two Beats namely 3 and 6 of Mahua P.S. be added to Pateypur P.S. and not Beat No. 21 of Mahua P.S.

(b) The population of Lalganj South is 87267 and the population of Beat No. 1, 4 and 7 of Mahua P.S. is 37852. By adding these three Beats to Lalganj South, the figure of population comes to 125119.

(c) The population of Beat No. 7, 10 and 13 is 46419 and if this figure is added to the population of Lalganj south i.e. 87267 the total population comes to 133686 and not to 125096 as prepared by the Commission. The calculation is wrong and so my suggestions should be accepted.

KARPOORI THAKUR, M.L.A.,

I have to offer the following suggestion with regard to the Assembly constituency of Saharsa in the district of Saharsa.

Saharsa police station and Chaukidari Unions No. 5 and 6 of Sourbazar police station in place of Chaukidari Unions Nos. 4 and 5 of Madhipura police station.

The reasons for the suggested change are more than one.

1. Chaukidari unions Nos. 5 and 6 of Sourbazar P.S. are no less contiguous to Saharsa police station than the Chaukidari Union Nos. 4 and 5 of Madhipura P.S.

2. The populations of both Saharsa and Sourbazar constituencies according to the suggestion offered here are comparatively more equalised than in the proposed constituencies.

3. The facilities of communications in this respect are better because in the constituency proposed by you one will have to cross two rivulets whereas in the constituency suggested by me there will be no such difficulty. The villages under the jurisdiction of Chaukidari unions Nos. 4 and 5 of Madhipura P.S. are far more distant from the southern most villages of Saharsa constituency than the villages of Chaukidari unions Nos. 5 and 6 of Sourbazar P.S. The railway stations of Baijnathpur and Mathahi fall under the jurisdiction of Sourbazar P.S. from where the villages of Chaukidari union Nos. 4 and 5 of Madhipura P.S. would be easily approachable by the candidates and their supporters of Sourbazar constituency.

I hope, the suggestion will be acceptable to you.

Bihar State Legislative Assembly Constituencies

221. Kodarma.—It is proposed that Kodarma Police Station in Hazaribagh Sub-division together with Dhanwar and Birni Police Stations in Giridih Sub-division should form a plural Constituency with a seat reserved for Scheduled Castes. The Commission may kindly recall that when the Commission discussed this proposal with us, I suggested that Kodarma should be left as a single constituency, that Dhanwar and Birni Police Stations in Giridih Sub-division may be formed into one single constituency and that Satgawan and Gawan and Deori (No. 222) together with Jamua and Bengabad Police Stations (No. 223) in Giridih Sub-division may form a Plural Constituency, as at present, with a seat reserved for the Scheduled Castes. My reasons for my sticking to the proposal which I made before the Delimitation Commission are as follows:

(1) The present constituencies should, as far as possible, be left undisturbed. Satgawan, Gawan, Deori, Jamua and Bengabad today form a plural Constituency and there is no reason why this plural constituency should be broken up into two constituencies. If Gawan, Satgawan, Deori, Jamua and Bengabad are allowed to be formed into a plural constituency with a seat reserved for scheduled castes, the total population of this constituency will be 2,44,250 of which the Scheduled Castes will constitute 32,259. As against this if Kodarma Police Station in Sadar Sub-division and Dhanwar and Birni Police Stations in Giridih Sub-division are allowed to be formed into a plural constituency as proposed by the Delimitation Commission the total population of this Constituency will be 2,10,126 of which the Scheduled Castes will number 32,981. Therefore, the proposed plural constituency of Kodarma (221) contains population of Scheduled Castes almost equal to the population of Scheduled Castes in the plural constituency suggested by me consisting of Satgawan, Gawan, Deori, Jamua and Bengabad.

(2) It has been said that if Dhanwar and Birni are not joined with Kodarma but are allowed to form a single member constituency, the total population of Dhanwar and Birni would be 1,05,117 which is less than the average total population of 1,25,000 required for forming a single constituency. As I had suggested before the Commission at Patna so I would like to suggest even now that if it is considered necessary to increase the population of Dhanwar and Birni constituency, villages with a population of 6000 may be taken from Bagodar constituency, which has a total population of 1,16,848 and which is adjacent to Birni and added to Dhanwar—Birni Constituency or from the plural constituency of Giridih which has a total population of 2,35,313 or from the present Jamua Constituency which has a population of 2,44,250, both of which are adjacent to Dhanwar—Birni.

(3) Kodarma has got an importance of its own. Having got the best mica of the world called Ruby mica in its jurisdiction it has got large mica labour population. It is desirable that such an area should have a seat of its own, in order that labour may be properly represented without being influenced by any other interest.

No. 233 Topchanchi.—The Commission will remember that I had suggested in the meetings at Patna that no seat for scheduled castes may be reserved in Dhanbad. My ground for making the suggestion was that though no seat has been reserved for labour as such still, tacitly, we might give single member constituencies to labour areas such as Dhanbad. I was told by the Commission that Dhanbad should have a seat reserved for the scheduled castes because Dhanbad was a district. Some entries in the Census report were quoted by the office of the Delimitation Commission at the time of discussion to show that Dhanbad was a district. I pointed out to the Commission that Dhanbad was not treated by Bihar Government as a District. We had undoubtedly an additional Deputy Commissioner posted at Dhanbad, but this was because Dhanbad was an industrial area and maintenance of law and order required that an important officer should be available at Dhanbad. The Collectorate for Manbhum was at Purulia and all the Revenue records were kept there. The Additional Collector Incharge of Revenue work for Manbhum was also posted at Purulia. I suggested to the Commission, which I would like to repeat even now, that while no seat may be reserved for the scheduled castes in Dhanbad, Chandankiari and Chas in Purulia may be combined to form one constituency with a seat reserved for the scheduled castes. The total population of Chas and Chandankiari would be 184083 of which the population of the Scheduled Castes would be 31,313 which is, I understand, the average required for the Scheduled Castes to get a seat reserved for them.
